Local Artists Present Two-Man Show Sunday At Pacific Coast Club

G. Arthur Hopkins, art instructor at West High School, and Larry Macaray, art instructor at El Camino College are currently exhibiting in a two-man showing at the Pacific Coast Club on Ocean Avenue in Long Beach. A reception and opening will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Hopkins, who will exhibit oils, graphics and pastels has an M.A. degree in music from Long Beach State College and an M.F.A. degree from the University of Guanajuato in Mexico. He has exhibited in Guadalajara, San Miguel de Allende in Mexico and several cities in the Southern California area.

THE RECENT all-Mexico competition judged by Rufino Tamayo included a painting by Hopkins. His paintings are part of collections in Canada, Mexico, Central America and the United States.

Macaray will exhibit oils and collages. He received a B.A. degree from Whittier College and an M.A. degree from Long Beach State College.

HE HAS exhibited in the National Veterans Exhibition in Washington, the National Orange Show, Orange County Fair, Long Beach Museum, Laguna Beach Plaza Show, Bowers Museum and Harvey Marlowe Gallery in Hollywood.

On July 8, Macaray will conduct a six-week tour of Europe. Twelve cities will be visited and reservations should be made early to insure a place on the tour. For further information, Macaray can be reached at El Camino College.
